

ITALY

Italy's appeal comes from its diversity of stunning coastlines, historical significance and ancient architecture. In the northern region you will find the fashion and industrial capital of Milan as well as the quiet canals and sunsets of Venice. Rome is the heart of the central region and is home to the Colosseum, Santa Maria Maggiore, the Pantheon and Vatican City. In southern Italy you will find the quaint towns of Positano and Ravello along the Amalfi Coast. Italy is so diverse that your biggest problem may be choosing an itinerary.
